1. Qualifications. Qualifications for Naval Aircrew Warfare Specialist (NAWS) designation are as follows:

- a. Be qualified as a crewmember per reference (a).
- b. Maintain a consistent record of above average performance per MILPERSMAN 1220-010.
- c. Successfully complete a Chief of Naval Operations (CNO) approved aircrew training syllabus including prerequisite pipeline courses that award a distribution Navy Enlisted Classification (NEC) of 78XX, 82XX, 8401, or 94XX.
- d. Successfully complete positional qualification requirements for the respective aircraft within 18 months of reporting to the permanent duty station (PDS) per reference (b) and complete Personnel Qualification Standard per reference (c).
- e. Be assigned in a duty involving flying crew (DIFCREW) status with a distribution NEC of 78XX, 82XX (except 8201 Naval Aircrew candidate), 8401, or 94XX; qualified and recommended for a crewmember NEC of 78XX, 82XX, 8401, or 94XX.

f. Be detailed into a valid aircrew billet requiring frequent and regular flying duty, defined by billet special category (for all NEC 82xx, 78xx, and 94xx billets) or by billet NEC (for NEC 8295, 8296, and 8401 billets). Members of non-aviation commands must still participate in frequent and regular flying in order to qualify for NAWS designation.

2. Procedures for (NAWS) Designation

a. Commanding officers (COs) shall certify in writing the member's qualifications in aircraft positions per this manual and reference (c).

b. Commands shall ensure the recording of the proper NEC. If it is not reflected on the Enlisted Distribution and Verification Report (EDVR), certification of the NEC shall be submitted per references (a) and (d).

c. COs of aviation units may award NAWS designations after ensuring that criteria within this article and references (a), (c), and (e) have been met. This authority may not be delegated "by direction." A NAWS designation letter should be prepared per reference (a) and presented to the member when the Aircrew Warfare Breast Insignia is awarded.

d. Only active aircrew, on and after 1 July 1997, are eligible for certificates of designation. They may not be awarded retroactively.

3. Revocation of NAWS Designation. COs shall revoke the NAWS designation from any aircrew who is permanently removed from flying status per reference (a); however, members who are permanently disqualified from flying due solely to medical reasons will lose their NAWS designation but retain the eligibility to wear the NAWS Breast Insignia. Any aircrew who are temporarily removed from flying status will also lose their NAWS designation but retain the eligibility to wear the NAWS Breast Insignia. All aircrew losing their NAWS designation or eligibility to wear the NAWS Breast Insignia shall be counseled by their CO regarding their specific aircrew status.

4. Reinstatement of Aircrewman Designation. If a previously-designated aircrewman is reinstated to duties involving flying per reference (a), the member may apply for reinstatement of NAWS designation and eligibility to wear the NAWS Breast Insignia. Command-endorsed requests for reinstatement of the NAWS designation or right to wear the NAWS Breast Insignia shall be forwarded for review per reference (a). Members may not wear the Insignia until approval is received.

5. Administrative Procedures

a. Whenever a member qualifies as a Naval Aircrewman, an entry shall be made on the NAVPERS 1070/613 (Rev. 7-06), Administrative Remarks, of the service record, indicating the

- date of qualification,
- type of aircraft in which qualification was received,
- authorization from Chief of Naval Personnel (CHNAVPERS) for awarding the NAWS designation, and
- authorization to wear the NAWS Breast Insignia.

The NAWS designator shall be affixed to the member's rate in the following manner: AWSC(NAC), etc. A personnel diary transaction shall be submitted reporting the change of enlisted designator to NAWS (Code 6).

b. Whenever a member is disqualified from aircrew duty, an entry shall be made on NAVPERS 1070/613 showing the reason for disqualification and rescinding of authorization to wear the NAWS Breast Insignia (except in the case of physical disqualification). The NAWS designator shall be canceled and a personal diary entry to that effect shall be made as follows: "CH designator to NONE."

c. The assignment or removal of aircrew NECs shall be per references (a) and (d).

d. Proper entry of qualification or disqualification shall be made on special duty abstracts of the health record at the time of original physical examination and annual reexaminations thereafter. Commanding Officers shall be informed of the results of all physical examinations.

e. In all reports, records, or other correspondence concerning active NAWS, the NAWS designator shall be included after the rating abbreviation. For example: AWSC (NAC) or AWOCS (NAC). Correspondence concerning inactive aircrewmen does not require this identification.

6. Service Record Entries. The following service record entries are used in conjunction with various requirements of the NAWS Program:

a. "[DATE]: I, [Member's Name], volunteer for duty involving flying and understand that I must maintain those qualifications specified by Chief of Naval Operations and Chief of Naval Personnel during the periods I am actively assigned to such duties.
